

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, March 18. 1713.

From the Hague and Amst. Cour. dated March 17, 13.

Naples, February 22.

THE Earl of Shaftsbury died here last Tuesday: His Body is embalm'd in order to be carried to London, according to the Directions which he himself gave on his Death-bed. Don Antonio Torres, General of an Ecclesiastick Order, was last Wednesday seized with an Apoplectick Fit as he was going out of Church, and died immediately. The new Man of War of 60 Guns, named the St. Leopold, commanded by Captain Bolini, was launched here, and 150 Men were put on board her. As all our Gallies have their Compliment, an overplus of 250 Scamen are distributed on board divers Vessels. We have News, that the last Convoy which was sent from hence, having debarked the Transport Forces at Cagliari with the Stores of War, pursued their Voyage to Barcelona; from whence we have Advice, that the Empress being restored to perfect Health, has given the necessary Orders for the Government of Affairs after her Departure, for which she is preparing. Our Viceroy assists every Day at the Councils of State and of War, in order to a compleat re-establishing the Tranquillity of this Kingdom. Within these few Days three Criminals have been hanged, one banished, divers others whipped, and one sent to the Gallies.

Rome, Feb. 25. There have been more Masquerades and other Diversions here during this Carnival than in any other City of Italy; notwithstanding which, no Disorder has yet happened. The Pope, since his Recovery, has visited several Churches, and has shewed himself to the People, who have expressed great Joy on this Occasion. After the Marquis de Suza had received his first Audience of the Pope, his Holiness sent him a Present of 12 Dishes furnished with all Sorts of Refreshments, and afterwards ordered several Nobles to attend him, and do him Honour during his Stay at Rome. Yesterday arrived an Express from Vienna, which having delivered a Packet of Letters to the Marquis de Prié, pursued his Journey for Naples. It is said he carries Orders to the Viceroy to advance towards the Milanese, to meet the Empress, and accompany her in her Journey through Italy. The Nunciature of Switzerland is designed for the Abbot Passionei, who is at present in Holland from our Court. Signior Aldobrandi is upon his Departure for Paris, but is not to go to Utrecht till the Peace is concluded: In the mean time he is to stay in that City, or at Avignon, being appointed after the Peace to go to Madrid. The Pope has made a Regulation in his Court, according to which no one is to have his Expences allowed in Lodgings, Bread and Wine, who shall have more than one Employment.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 17.

Dresden, March 6. The Baron de Leuwendahl, grand Marshal of the Electoral Court, is not yet arrived here from Warsaw; but it is said he is on the Road, and is expected very speedily. The Count de Lagnasco went Yesterday from this Place to go to the King, and make a Report to his Majesty of the State of Affairs in Holland. There are great Changes already made in the Court of Prussia, where Prince Leopold d'Anhalt will have the Direction of the military Affairs. The new King will considerably augment his Forces, and it is reported that his Majesty has declared himself very favourably for the House of Austria. The Money and other Effects of the Jew Lipman's Widow have been seized in Misnia, which she designed to have transported to some other Place.

From the Utrecht Journal, dated March 17.

Versailles, March 10. The 3th Instant being the first Day of Lent, the King accompanied by the Duke of Berry, heard a Sermon Preached in the Chappel of the Castle by Father Quinquet Theatun. On the 7th the Count de Rivarolo Envoy extraordinary of his Highness the Duke of Parma had a private Audience of his Majesty, being introduced by the Baron de Breteuil Intendant of Ambassadors.

From the Utrecht Journal, dated March 17.

Hague, March 15. The States of Holland and West-Friesland were this Day assembled. Yesterday a Battallion of the Guards marched from hence for Brabant, and two others marched this Day towards the same Place. It is said that Monsieur Hymmen Envoy of the King of Prussia has notified to their High Mightinesses a Memorial, in which his Majesty represents his Desire to cultivate in all things a good Understanding with the States-Genetl; to confirm the Treaties and Conventions concluded between the King his Father of glorious Memory and their High Mightinesses, and that he is willing to renew and extend them further, in order to a stricter Alliance in the present Juncture. His Majesty will likewise concur towards the Accomodation of the Crowns of the North. Their High Mightinesses were Yesterday and to Day extraordinarily Assembled, with their Deputies, on the Subject of the Dispatches they have from their Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, as well as on the Affairs of the North.
